Certification: I hereby apply for membership in the North Carolina Advocates for Justice. I believe in the North Carolina Advocates for Justice's mission of Protecting People's Rights through professional and community legal education; championing individual rights; and protecting the safety of North Carolina's families—in the workplace, in the home, and in the environment. I represent the rights of those injured by the wrongful acts of others, the rights of workers or disabled people, the rights of parties in family disputes, the rights of consumers in debt, the rights of the accused of criminal offenses, and/or the civil rights of individuals or otherwise meet the membership qualifications of the North Carolina Advocates for Justice. I am dedicated to the preservation of trial by jury and the advancement of the mission of the North Carolina Advocates for Justice. I understand that no person shall be eligible for or continue membership in the North Carolina Advocates for Justice, who, for the most part, represents insurance defense in civil matters or the prosecution in criminal matters.
